Sherwill Club Dinner Helps Camp Project

The Sherwill Community 4-H Club of Campbell County has recently served a supper to a civic group — the proceeds going to the construction of a proposed campsite for the West Central District near Smith Mountain Dam.

To prove the members of the Sherwill Community Club can really cook, set a table, serve a meal and wash dishes, several members of the club got together two weeks ago at the high school and had learned that Mrs. Anna B. Elcan, Campbell's Home Demonstration agent, and Carrey Carson, Assistant County Agent, were coming to the school for pictures in connection with the Smith Mountain Center fund raising drive.

Ready for the guests was a platter of fried chicken, tossed salad, sliced tomatoes, a cherry pie, homemade rolls, iced tea, and a variety of sandwiches.

Supervising the luncheon were Mrs. L. N. Garrette, Mrs. J. F. MacKenzie, and Mrs. Travis Jones Cardwell.

All members of the Sherwill Community Club are residents of Sherwill and Concord. They attend Rustburg High School.

On hand to assist the senior members were Jane Garrette and Anne Scott Cardwell — a future 4-H'er. Jane is a junior member, Anne Scott is the 3½ year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis J. Cardwell.

Fourth Of July Turns Out To Be "Ground Hog Day"

A town resident, chasing off groundhogs from his property on the 4th of July, must have caused more harm than the ill-fated groundhogs, as he burned off some brush near Evans' Machinery depot on the north side of Rt 460 in an effort to reach the groundhogs' hole. A neighbor saw the blaze and turned in the alarm. The town truck raced to the scene about 3 p.m. but returned to headquarters without turning on a hose. Skinney Woodridge, assistant fire chief remarked, "We get home sooner — and a lot cleaner — when it's only a false alarm."
